

BLACK FRIDAY

trivia

Question 1:

In what year did Black Friday become widely recognized as the official start of the holiday shopping season?

Question 2:

What is the term commonly used to describe the frenzied rush of shoppers when stores open on Black Friday?

Question 3:

Which U.S. state is credited with popularizing the term "Black Friday" in the context of holiday shopping?

Question 4:

What is the traditional color associated with positive financial gains, leading to the term "Black Friday"?

Question 5:

Which retail giant is often credited with popularizing the concept of "doorbuster" deals on Black Friday?

Question 6:

On what day does Black Friday typically fall each year?

Question 7:

What is the nickname given to the Monday following Black Friday, known for online shopping deals?

Question 8:

Which year saw the emergence of "Cyber Monday" as a significant online shopping day?

Question 9:

What is the name of the shopping phenomenon that encourages consumers to shop locally on the Saturday following Black Friday?

Question 10:

Which president is often credited with making Thanksgiving the fourth Thursday in November, thereby influencing the timing of Black Friday?

Answer 1:

The term "Black Friday" became widely recognized in the 1980s.

Answer 2:

The term commonly used to describe the frenzied rush of shoppers when stores open on Black Friday is "doorbusters."

Answer 3:

The U.S. state credited with popularizing the term "Black Friday" in the context of holiday shopping is Pennsylvania.

Answer 4:

The traditional color associated with positive financial gains, leading to the term "Black Friday," is black.

Answer 5:

Walmart is often credited with popularizing the concept of "doorbuster" deals on Black Friday.

Answer 6:

Black Friday typically falls on the day after Thanksgiving in the United States, which is the fourth Friday of November.

Answer 7:

The nickname given to the Monday following Black Friday, known for online shopping deals, is "Cyber Monday."

Answer 8:

The concept of "Cyber Monday" as a significant online shopping day emerged in the year 2005.

Answer 9:

The shopping phenomenon that encourages consumers to shop locally on the Saturday following Black Friday is known as "Small Business Saturday."

Answer 10:

President Franklin D. Roosevelt is often credited with making Thanksgiving the fourth Thursday in November, thereby influencing the timing of Black Friday.