

CUPID'S QUERIES

Share a story about your first love. Was it a sweet school crush or a tale that could out-romance Romeo and Juliet?

If you could write a love letter to someone from your past (without any need to send it), what would you say? Or share a memory of a love letter you received or wish you had received.

Share your secret ingredient for a lasting relationship or marriage. What advice would you give to the younger generation about love, based on your life experiences?

What song reminds you of a significant other or a special moment in your love life? Share the story behind it. Was it a dance at a diner, a serenade under the stars, or just that tune that always seemed to play at just the right moment?

Is there a romantic movie that resonates with your own love story or one that you've always dreamed of experiencing? Describe the scene and why it's meaningful to you.
