

Roll and Tell

Paris

What would be the first thing you would want to see or do if you visited Paris, and why?

If you could have dinner at any Parisian restaurant, what type of food would you like to try, and who would you invite to join you?

Paris is known as the "City of Light." What do you think gives the city this nickname, and what does it make you think of?

If you could visit one of the famous landmarks in Paris (Eiffel Tower, Louvre, Notre-Dame), which would you choose and what would you hope to experience there?

Paris is famous for its art and culture. If you could take an art class or see a performance in Paris, what would you choose, and why?

Imagine you could bring back a souvenir from Paris for a loved one. What would you choose and who would you give it to?